Nonfiction

By Eastern Windows by William H. McDougall. DBU01282 (12 hrs, 12 min)

One of two books that narrate the experiences of United Press correspondent Bill McDougall in the Pacific during World War II. The author later became a Catholic priest and Rector Emeritus of the Cathedral of the Madeleine in Salt Lake. This volume details his grim, fascinating, and often humorous life in the Japanese prison camps of Sumatra. Narrated by Roland Pitt.

Here We Stand by Joseph Fielding McConkie. DBU01307 (7 hrs, 1 min)

A professor of ancient scripture at BYU emphasizes that the First Vision of Joseph and the glorious record of the Book of Mormon are at the very foundation of the Mormon faith. Narrated by Roland Pitt. (Replaces CBU06671)

Majesty of God's Law by W. Cleon Skousen. DBU01336 (23 hrs, 30 min)

This book is the author's study of the history and development of the only system of law which was revealed by God himself. When Moses gave this law to the Israelites, he said it could make them the most peaceful, prosperous, and powerful people on earth. He then learned that it would not be until the latter days that this law would be lived the way it was originally designed. Narrated by Thomas Black.

Meek and Lowly by Neal A. Maxwell. DBU01378 (5 hrs, 30 min)

A short book on this virtue about which the prophet Mormon taught, "None is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly." Elder Maxwell discusses how to attain this critical attribute required for salvation. Narrated by Gary Armstrong. (Replaces CBU06252)

Scriptural Parables by Andrew Skinner. DBU01308 (7 hrs)

The authors examine the parables in Matthew 13, Jacob 5, D and C 101, D and C 38 and 88, Matthew 24, Matthew 25, and Daniel 2. These parables bear witness that this dispensation is at the center of long foretold events. Narrated by Gary Armstrong. (Replaces CBU07475)

Shield of Faith by Boyd K. Packer. DBU01310 (6 hrs, 29 min)

This title collects 21 inspiring and motivational sermons and speeches of the beloved Apostle. Principles that help families to assemble solid shields of faith are examined and explained. Narrated by Alan Willey. (Replaces CBU06744)

Six Bells Off Java by William McDougall. DBU01283 (7 hrs, 16 min)

One of two books that narrate the experiences of United Press correspondent Bill McDougall in the Pacific during World War II. The author later became a Catholic priest and Rector Emeritus of the Cathedral of the Madeleine in Salt Lake. This volume recounts his escape from Shanghai and subsequent incredible adventures. Narrated by Roland Pitt.

That All May Be Edified by Boyd K. Packer. DBU01390 (12 hrs, 54 min)

Subtitled "Talks, Sermons, and Commentary," this 1982 book likens the elements necessary for the building of a soul to the architectural elements of a building. The author explains the soul's struggle to progress, to accept change, and to work toward perfection. Narrated by Thomas Black. (Replaces CBU06664)
